

DUKE MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH, DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

E-7730

Duke Memorial Methodist Church, which occupies the full block on Chapel Hill Street between Duke and Gregson Streets, had its beginning in the factory of the famous firm of W. Duke and Sons, Sunday, May 2, 1886. The sanctuary, educational building, parsonage, and grounds are valued at three-quarters of a million. It now has more than 1,800 members.

PUBLISHED BY ASHEVILLE POST CARD CO., ASHEVILLE, N. C.

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP
HERE